Dynamics 365 Supply Chain Management: Master Planning Fundamentals

Duration: 1 day (Remote) | Focus Area: Business / IT Alignment | Difficulty level: 200

Intended Audience

Individuals responsible for overseeing the organization's operations related to material(s) availability and capacity planning to meet day-to-day replenishment requirements.
Primary Audience: Manufacturing and supply chain team specialists
Secondary Audience: IT department, Business analysts, Developers

Agenda

Module 1: Master planning fundamentals

Module 2: Planning optimization fundamentals

Overview

The Microsoft Dynamics 365 Supply Chain Management: Master Planning Fundamentals Chalk Talk is a one-day engagement delivered remotely by a Dynamics 365 Supply Chain Management specialist. This course is geared toward individuals who are responsible for overseeing the day to-day operations related to material(s) supply planning and replenishment business processes.

Objectives and Key takeaways

Individuals who attend this course will retain a working knowledge of the Master Planning functionality available in Dynamics 365 Supply Chain Management by covering the following areas:

• The basic concepts around master planning
• Master planning configuration and setup
• The use the master planning module and daily procedures
• The basic concepts of planning optimization

Microsoft

Course details

Module 1: Master planning fundamentals

- Master planning overview
- System architecture and data flow
- Planning considerations and setup
- Coverage groups
- Coverage settings
- Forecasting
- Intercompany master planning

Module 2: Planning optimization fundamentals

- Installation and configuration
- Migration to planning optimization
- Current behaviour in planning optimization
- Use planning optimization
- Priority– based planning
- Demand planning
- Demand driven material requirements planning

Pre-requisites

General working knowledge of the Dynamics 365 Supply Chain Management module as well as material(s) availability and capacity planning business processes are recommended but not required

For more information

Contact your Microsoft Account Representative for further details.

Microsoft